Foot Prints

Dedicated to . . .

MRS. RUTH BROWN

Because you have pushed us over the rough road of sharps and flats, worked with us on commencement music, helped us with May Day, shared our tears and laughter, and been a real pal to all of us; we dedicate this 1959 Footprints to you, Mrs. Ruth Brown.

MRS. MARY WATKINS

For four years Mrs. Leona Mae Kelly was a member of the elementary faculty of the Lillington High School. Her devotion to her task, her ability to inspire small boys and girls with the desire to learn, and her pleasing personality and kindness-all these have endeared her memory to the students and faculty of Lillington High School.

ACTIVITIES

FOOTPRINTS STAFF

Members of the annual staff, working hard to meet the deadline are heard exclaiming: "I can stay but an hour," "This picture is awful!" "Trim the edges of the picture," "Get busy," "Where are the scissors?" "I have to go home and study," "Bring me a large pepsi and a pack of nabs," "I need an eraser," "Is that me?" "Save me your ice," "Is there anything I can do?" This group of students and their advisor are combining fun with honest-to-goodness labor, hoping to please you with our efforts.

Each year the marshals are selected from the Junior Class according to scholastic standing. The student with the highest average serves as chief. Four other regulars and two alternates are selected. The following were marshals: Emily Kelly - chief, Barbara Pinnix, Jessie Anna Lee, Margie Parker, Barbara Currin, and Terry Gates. Not Pictured: Janet Thomas.

BUS DRIVERS

How happy we were to win the championship!

We hope to make the varsity someday.

Freda and Lilly, the students of L. H. S. would like to thank you for making our surroundings pleasant and sanitary. Freda Murchison and Lilly Murchison.

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
